The only place in the city to find Holland Herring and Swiss Limburger cheese is at F. S. Rosenthal's, East Las Vegas.

For rooms near the public plaza, building lots for sale and houses to rent apply to CHARLES EMIL WESCHE.

Henry Bram's Sample Room, is the place for a good drink, and fine cigars he keeps the very best and don't forget it. Bacon building.

At Hopper Bros. establishment opposite Otero Sellar & Co. groceries are being sold cheaper than elsewhere. Besides, their tables are ever loaded with the most choice delicacies and substantials. They have a knack of making friends with all whom they have dealings.

A social party of young ladies and gentlemen, friends of Miss Maggie Hastings, was had at the Grand View Hotel Friday evening. Miss Hastings will soon return to Trinidad, which was the occasion of the party. It was decidedly enjoyable to the participants. The dining room was cleared and dancing was indulged until the small hours.

A few nights ago a party of business men, doubtless wearied with the cares of the day and seeking some elevating mental recreation, strolled into a concert hall. One of the actors got up the comandirum:

"How do the Hot Springs resemble a certain gentleman?" The answer was: "They are hot as the Dickens, and he is Dickenson." The effect on that party was magical.

The average Kansas Real Estate dealer is beyond question a sharper. Some kind of business recently brought one to Las Vegas and while here he improved the shining hour by buying a barrel of two pound onions grown here. He will freight them to the Arkansas valley exhibiting them to lamb buyers say: "These were grown in my garden with scarcely no attention at all. They are a glorious commentary upon drowsy Kansas now aint they."

The Holmans gave an extraordinary bill last night. The West Point Cadet kept the whole audience convulsed with laughter. Miss Monte Holman is certainly every inch an actress, in any role she may select. Her rendition of the Indian girl was the best ever presented to the public of Las Vegas. Eugene Holman's negro eccentricities were without an equal. Miss Mollie Durand sustained her part admirably. Mr. Charles Green did a fine old man while Mr. Bigelow danced a splendid clog. The company has recently received a valuable addition in the person of Miss Lotta Le Grey, a lovely little bird, who sings like a nightingale. Turn out and give them a call.

Gordon's Gray Wins.

The race between "Gordon's Pony," Lewelling's gray horse and White stockings, came off yesterday afternoon, on Chapman's race track near the Springs. The conditions of the race were, $75 entry and an even race a half mile the distance to be run. Quite a large number of people gathered to witness the race. The gray horse appeared to be the favorite and side betting was quite brisk. After a long wait and a severe freeze the horses were unbalked and made ready for the race. An uneven start was made, Gordon's Pony taking the lead, followed by Lewelling's horse and White stockings. For the first couple of hundred yards the two last named horses gained rapidly on the pony, but soon fell behind. The pony made a fine appearance as she came down on the home stretch and passed the judges at about 60 feet ahead.

Episcopal Church

The new St. Paul's Episcopal Church building will be opened for service this morning, at 11 o'clock, local time, by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Colorado, who came in on the coach from Santa Fe, last night. The Rev. J. A. M. La Tourrette, chaplain at Fort Union, came in yesterday with Col. Hunt, the Post Quarter Master, and will assist in the services. St. Paul's is the name of the mission at Las Vegas and its chapel is the first building erected by the Episcopal Church in New Mexico. Las Vegas ought to be proud of this, as about two-thirds of the money expended has been contributed by her citizens. The Episcopalian are, of course, happy and thankful to have a house of their own. Their feelings will find expression this morning, both in the worship and in the addresses that will probably be made. A full statement of receipts and expenditures will be made, showing that there is no debt whatever upon the building. The church will doubtless be crowded by persons interested.

There will also be services at 4 p.m.

Social Club.

At a meeting in the office of T. Romero, Bros. & Son, on Friday evening, Nov. 7th, it was resolved to have an inauguration ball at Chapman's Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 14th. The Society will make every exertion to make it a grand affair. A good hot lunch will be served in the hall, so as not to inconvenience parties to go out in the cold. It was also resolved that all members of the Las Vegas Press be elected honorary members, exempt from all dues and expenses, which was carried unanimously. After appointing arrangement committee, the meeting adjourned.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. McDonald wife of R. G. McDonald arrived on this morning's train.

George Lail was in the city yesterday. He has a R. R. Contract below and his external appearance betokens hard work.

Post Master Breeden of Santa Fe came in on the stage last evening, took the cars, went up and met his wife who was on the down train and returned to this city.

Gathered In.

When the corn is gathered in
And the summer days are o'er,
And the throns return again
From the mountains and the shore
Then the light of gentle eyes

Comes where silent homes have been;
'Neath the cool September skies,

When the corn is gathered in.

There's a beauty on the land,

And a splendor on the sea;

As we wander head in hand—

For my love comes back to me.

Where her footsteaps are have been;

As we whisper, each to each,

When the corn is gathered in.

At the falling of the leaves.

When November days draw nigh,

And the dreary north wind grieves

With a more than human cry,

I shall clasp her to my heart—

I have a load, and I shall win—

We shall dwel no more apart,

When the corn is gathered in.

STOKE RAISING.

The Eastern part of New Mexico though here and there diversified with mountain ridges or isolated peaks which rise up to mark out the land may be called a vast stock ranch and on its plain, slopes and mesas will graze the cattle and sheep of a thousand hills. The attention of capitalists is now turning largely to the raising of stock. Some have already invested in this business largely. That many more will invest and that eastern New Mexico will become one of the greatest sources of supply in beef and wool is as certain as that the sun will continue to rise.

The profits in cattle and sheep raising are from 40 to 80 per cent per annum and there is room for thousands to enter upon the business.
